nderground to avoid arrest

Abducted girl recovered

An abducted school girl of village Sthapondighi under Singra upazila was recovered after 7 months on October 27 last.

Police arrested the abductor in this connection.

According to police, Nazrul Islam a neighbour of the girl and his 7 friends abducted the girl on March 23 last.

They confined the in different places for seven months and raped her.

The girl escaped on October 26 last.

In this connection the father of the girl filed a case with police station against seven persons including Nazrul Islam Babu. Police arrested one Rustam Ali in this connection on October 28 last.

Arms recovered

Police arrested one Hatizuddin of village Bamihal in Singra upazila on October 27 last. Police n without officials!

rrespondent

Livestock Officer, Thana Sub-Registrar, Thana Settlement Officer, BRDB Officer and the literacy skill. There is no improving the people with limited

materials are not produced

In this connection two separate cases were filed with police station.

30 injured in clashes

At least 30 people, including women and a police officer were injured in separate clashes on Friday.

At Banurbhag village under sadar upazila supporters of Badsha and Gias were locked in clash over a disputed land.

The feuding groups also clashed with police when the law enforcers appeared at the scene. A total of 22 people including one sub-inspector of police were injured.

Two rival groups fought each other over a plot of land leaving eight people injured at Dighapotia.

Two of the injured A. Rahman and Raisuddin were sent to Rajshahi Medical College Hospital in critical state.

In this connection separate cases were registered with police station.

Disarray in CCC administration

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Nov 4.—A section of the workers and employees of Chittagong City Corporation (CCC) on Monday insulted a senior officer of the CCC accusing him of corruption and irregularities in the education policy. During the preparation of showing in the new education policy ment such responsibilities is not house of Nihar Mallick, a businessmen of the city, at Nasirabad area near Chittagong Shopping Complex under Panchlaish Police Station. The miscreants looted cash of Taka 25,000, 9 tola gold and other valuables at gunpoint.

7 houses gutted

As many as seven dwelling houses were reduced to ashes in a fire that broke out at village Sarkerpara under Chandanish police station on November 2.

The loss was estimated at Taka three lakh.

The fire originated from the kitchen of Abdar Rashid 3.00 a.m. and spread over the adjacent houses. The flames damaged valuables of seven houses within one hour and a half hours.

RU JCD body formation creates terror

From Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI UNIVERSITY, Nov 5.—The newly formed 81-member JCD Committee of Rajshahi University (RU) Unit has created controversies among the leaders and workers as well as raised the question of transparency of central leaders in the formation of committee.

This has been the talk of Rajshahi University. The committee has been formed with Ahmed Majid Shimul as its provide primary education for all 3.4 sq kilometre area in order to rently on average one government primary school in every

Bank filed 75 cases for Taka 12.02 crores, Janata Bank filed 25 cases for Taka 2.44 crores, Agrani Bank filed 2 cases for taka 0.16 crores and BKB filed 696 cases for Taka 138.85 crores. The total number of cases in 798 and loan Taka 153.47.

In Chowgacha, Sonali Bank filed 3 cases for taka 0.29 crores, Janata Bank filed 26 cases for Taka 1.92 crores, BKB filed 161 cases for Tk 45.37 crores and BRDB filed 15 cases two Taka 0.86 crores. The total cases is 205 and loan Tk 48.44 crores.

Commissionin early procure in N. region

From Our Cor

THAKURGAON, Nov 6.—The conference of Thakurgaon Branch of Bangladesh Krishak Samity was held at the Dramatic Hall on October 31. The conference was presided over by the President of the organisation Advocate F A Mohammad Hossain.

More than 200 delegates from 5 upazilas of the district attended the conference which began with hoisting of national and organisational flags. A colourful procession was brought out in the town.

A condolence resolution was

IN 1972, immediately after independence, the new Constitution of Bangladesh was written. It showed a strong

Primary And Mass Education In The Light Of Education Policy 2000

A.N.S. Habibur Rahman

THE BANGLADESH OBSERVER
NOV 07 2002