

→ 21/20/2007

THE BANGLADESH OBSERVER

DU to observe JN Hall tragedy day Oct 15

Dhaka University will observe the Jaganath Hall tragedy day on October 15 in which 40 students of the hall were killed and many injured due to the collapse of roof of the auditorium in 1985, reports BSS.

The authorities of the university have taken programmes to observe the day in a befitting manner. The programmes include hoisting of black flag to each hall and main buildings at 6 AM and wearing of black badges, mourning procession by the teachers, students and officials, placing of wreath, said a DU press release in Dhaka on Wednesday.

Special prayers will be offered at the hall premises, mosques in the university seeking divine blessing of the departed souls.