

JAN. 29 2001

THE DAILY NEWS OBSERVER

তারিখ
পৃষ্ঠা	১৭
কলাম	১

Move to reopen Khulna varsity

Khulna Bureau

KHULNA, Jan 28:—Leaders of different political parties and citizens bodies at a meeting with Khulna University authority today have agreed to reopen KU very soon and soon and to hold upcoming second convocation of KU properly.

The meeting was held at KU conference room this afternoon with Mayor of Khulna City Corporation, Advocate Sheik Taiebur Rahman in the chair. Vice-Chancellor of KU Professor Dr S M Nazrul Islam represented KU authority in the meeting.

The meeting unanimously agreed to the reopening of KU very soon and holding of KU convocation with the Chancellor President Shahabuddin Ahmed.

It also observed that guilty students should seek unconditional apology to teachers they assaulted and promised not to repeat such incident in future. The meeting also called upon the teachers to pardon guilty students if they seek apology.

Speakers in the meeting strongly criticized the role of KU treasurer Sardar Abdur Razzak.

The meeting also discussed the solution of KU accommodation problem for female students. AL and BNP leaders assured KU authority of their help in this regard.

City AL President Monzurul Imam, district AL President Sheikh Harunur Rashid, BNP leaders Nurul Islam, Nazrul Islam Monzu, Khulna Unnoyan Committee leader Abu Md. Ferdous, Jamaat leader Golam Sarwar, IOJ leader Shakhawat Hossain, CPB leader Feroz Ahmed, BNP leader Gaji A Bari, Shaharuzzaman Mortoza, PP Kazi Badsha Mia, journalist Sheikh Abu Hasan, Belal Uddin spoke in the meeting.