

Strike at RU called off

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, July 30:—The indefinite strike enforced by the workers of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) on the campus of Rajshahi University was called off following a fruitful discussion with the RU authorities last night after seven days.

In the meeting the RU authorities accepted most of the 20-point demand of the JCD and assured then that rest of the demands will be accepted.

RU sources said, following withdrawal of the strike all the academic and administrative activities will run from tomorrow (Tuesday). However the scheduled examinations in different departments will be held after August 3.

RU authorities sought full co-operation from all quarters to run the varsity smoothly.
