RAJSHAHI, July 10:— In the wake of a tense situation Rajshahi University authorities have banned student politics on the campus for 10 days starting from today, reports UNB.

The decision came following a series of clashes among the police, ruling party-backed Chhatra League and pro-BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal activists on Monday.

Proctor of the University Prof Azizul Islam issued the ban saying the authorities have taken the decision to ensure peaceful and congenial atmosphere on the campus.

According to the order all sorts of political activities including strikes, siege, gatherings and processions will be treated as offence.
