

Rajshahi University's Students' Adviser

Md Rokonuzzaman

THE University of Rajshahi, the second largest university of Bangladesh, upholds the cultural and traditional heritage. Students coming here for higher education from different socio-economic and cultural backgrounds face problems relating to their day to day academic, residential, cultural and other extra curricular activities, particularly the problems relating to their social adjustment.

Co-ordinating the linkage between the administration and students of the university in solving the above problems is the duty of the student's Adviser's office. Moreover, students coming here for seeking admission face multiple problems in deciding their future line of education. Details of the stu-

- (i) Solving problems concerning main tenance of normal and academic atmosphere in the university campus and advise the students accordingly.
- (ii) Every year those who are interested in getting admission and who have already been ready studying in the university face difficulties in admission, accommodation, examination etc.
- (iii) In order to help develop the creativity of students, inspire the students about sports, cultural and social development activities besides their academic curriculum, the student Adviser constantly keeps in touch with them.
- (iv) Make necessary arrangements for the spontaneous treatment of seriously ill student and accident-related problems and to do the
- cial assistance.
- (v) To co-ordinate and help to establish amicable relationship among the different student organisations.
- (vi) To take necessary steps in extending financial assistance to poor and meritorious students.
- (vii) To co-ordinate formal observance of various national days in university campus with the participation of students, teachers and employees of the university.
- (viii) To make necessary arrangement for admission of wards of freedom fighters and aboriginal tribal students in the university.
- (ix) To take necessary steps for maintaining and developing the central auditorium (Kazi Nazrul Islam Auditorium) as well as co-ordinating different pro-