(Tuesday) to protest the combined attack of police and BCL on JCD.

Tension escalated in the campus when the ruling party backed BCL declared Rajshahi City Mayor and BNP central Organising Secretary, Mijanur Rahman Minu persona-non-grata on RU campus on Saturday for not extending civic facilities in the RU campus area. BNP backed JCD retaliated by declaring the Prime Minister and her Cabinet members persona-non-grata on RU campus on the same day for not allocating sufficient fund for RU.

A chase and counter-chase between the supporters of BCL and JCD occurred yesterday noon. JCD activists beat a BCL activist.

Protesting the beating incident BCL brought out a procession at about 11.30 a.m. today on RU campus. When the procession was passing near the JCD's tent some brickbats were thrown from the procession to the JCD's tent. A JCD activist retaliated and a chase and counter-chase ensued. Police, resorted to lathi charge to disperse JCD activists. The clash soon spread to RU Bus Stand, Administrative Building, Central Library and Kazla Gate areas. Police fired rubber bullets and lobbed of tear gas shells and resorted to baton charge on the students mercilessly. Police arrested five JCD activists Aminul, Dalim, Raihan, Riaz, Farid and six BCL activists Uzzal, Jewel, Khokan, Milon, Raju and Sabuz and five others.
