Zia asked the teachers and employees to remain alert and work for the election.

She reminded them of implementing those steps that were taken after her party came to power in 1991. Begum Zia said no one wants Awami League in power because Awami League is a party which think it is bigger than the people and the country. They (Awami Leaguers) treat the party bigger anything else and that is reason they destroyed the country after going to power.

BNP chairperson further alleged Awami League took the economy backward, destroyed the education arena and pushed the teachers and employees to the streets. She said because of these factors, the people will not vote Awami League in next elections.

Led by Professor M Sharful Islam, about fifty teachers and employees exchanged views with Begum Zia. Others who spoke on the occasion, included BNP Secretary General Abdul Mannan Bhuyian, employees leader Selim Bhuyian and Maulana Abdul Latif of Jammiat Mudaraseen.

Former governor of Bangladesh Bank Khorshed Alam joined BNP after meeting Begum Zia. Pointing to his joining, Begum Zia said it proved that all conscious people would continue to be joining to BNP.
