

26/7/2006

তাৰিখ
সং

Ch

FOLLOWING power take over by the new government, universities owing allegiance to it are politically very active. They are insisting on change in the administrations. Consequently Vice-Chancellors and Pro-V lors of all the universities in the country has become uncertain. The pro-BNP teachers are making lot of noise to attract the attention of the government. BUET distributing prizes among the members of Champion team BL the seriousness of the situation and to convince it of the urgency of effecting changes at highest levels of the university administrations. It is however reliably learnt from sources of the Ministry of Education that the government has adopted a go-slow policy with regard changes in the university administration.

A few days ago pro-BNP teachers of Dhaka University, BUET and Jahangirnagar University charged their Vice-Chancellors with nepotism and attempt with nepotism and attempt to politicize their universities to immediately stop strikes and demanded their resignations. The UN should accuse the government of taking responsibility for eliminating terrorism. The government source said that the new government is bringing about drastic change in the universities. The government may at best go for certain changes. The sources said that Chancellors of the Universities are allowed to complete their terms.

The source said the government will undertake scrutiny of the corruptions indulged in by Chancellors during their terms. The irregularities are unearthed during the Vice-Chancellors, elected or selected, will be found against them, the Vice-Chancellors can be removed by the general clause of 1872 Act which appoints the Vice-Chancellors, elected or selected, will be

vipe out errorism

accept this issue as a clash of civilizations or religions.

A more egalitarian social order based on the principles of democracy and justice is a pre-requisite for eliminating terrorism.

The meeting urged USA and its allies to immediately stop strikes and demanded their resignations. The UN should accuse the government of taking responsibility for eliminating terrorism. The government source said that the new government is bringing about drastic change in the universities. The government may at best go for certain changes. The sources said that Chancellors of the Universities are allowed to complete their terms.

The source said the government will undertake scrutiny of the corruptions indulged in by Chancellors during their terms. The irregularities are unearthed during the Vice-Chancellors, elected or selected, will be found against them, the Vice-Chancellors can be removed by the general clause of 1872 Act which appoints the Vice-Chancellors, elected or selected, will be

Esal-e-Swab

Esal-e-Swab of Furfura begins on Tuesday. There is a rumour that today (Tuesday) at Markaje Esal-e-Swab of Furfura begins. Chancellors can be removed by the general clause of 1872 Act which appoints the Vice-Chancellors, elected or selected, will be

Qaiyum appointed acting Police Commissioner of DMP

Staff Correspondent

The government appointed Abdul Qaiyum, Deputy Inspector General of Police, as the Commissioner (Acting) of Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) on Sunday. Qaiyum joined the Bangladesh Police as Assistant Police Super 1973 after passing the BCS examination.

He obtained his graduation Honours in Economics in 1967 and Masters in 1969 from Dhaka University. Prior to joining police, he was a lecturer of Neelamkona College.

Qaiyum served as the Superintendent of Police (SP) in Noakhali, Rajshahi, Naogaon and Jhenaidhia districts and Deputy Police Commissioner (Head Quarter). Deputy Police Commissioner (Detective) and Additional Police Commissioner in the DMP.

Hailed from Jamalpur district, Qaiyum completed Officer Command Course at British Police Staff College in UK