

অনি 30 SEP 1988

পৃষ্ঠা... ২... কলাম... ৪...

22 students expelled from BIT

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Sept. 29:—The Bangladesh Institute of Technology (engineering college) finally expelled its 22 student leaders on charge of their involvement in subversive activities.

According to BIT sources, the bold decision for expulsion of these student leaders were taken in a recent meeting of the BIT Board of Discipline.

Incidentally, all these expelled students are the dedicated activists of student wing of two major political parties of the country. While 15 of them belong to pro-Awami League Chhatra League, seven are from BNP student wing Jatiyotabadi Chhatra Dal and all of them are office-bearers of these two student bodies even in the capacity of Presidents and General Secretaries.

The expelled students are Shantanu Talukdar, Sajjad Hossain, Rabin-dra Nath, Khorsheduddin Azij, Masud Shamal Ghosh, Mizanur Rahman, Muslemuddin, Golam Mostafa, Abdur Rahman, Gunrun Singh, Nasiruddin, Anjan, Abdullah Al-Mahmud from Chhatra League and Mejbah, Hashim and Tarikul from JCD.

62