Ctg BCL calls hartal tomorrow

CHITTAGONG, Dec. 9:—Chittagong Chhatra League (A-A) has called for a half-day hartal in the district, including the port city, on Wednesday protesting Sunday's killing in Hathazari upazila, reports UNB.

The 6 am to 12 noon hartal programme was announced by the Awami League's student wing at a protest meeting, at Laldighi Maidan this afternoon following the namaz-e-janaza of the three victims who were gunned down Sunday at Nurali Mear Hat of Farhadabad Union in Hathazari Upazila.

Speakers at the meeting warned that they would go for greater programme if the administration failed to arrest the killers soon.

Of the three victims, two were identified as Kazi Shyamol and Zafar Ahmed of Chhatra League (A-A).

Police said the other victim, Didarul Alam, was an employee of Chittagong Steel Mills and also a football referee. But some local sources said he was an worker of National Democratic Party (NDP).
