

পত্ৰিকা
নং ১১১
পৃষ্ঠা ১
০৮ OCT 1993
১১১

Govt college teachers observe token strike

Varsity Correspondent

Teachers of the Government Colleges observed a token strike on Thursday in protest against terrorism in educational institutions and attack on the Principal of Rajbari Government College Prof. Yahya Islam and his family members.

BCS General Education Association, a body of the Government college teachers, gave the strike call demanding stoppage of violence in the educational arena and adequate security to the students and teachers on the campus.

Classes of the Government Colleges across the country were not held

See Page 10 Col.4

Teachers

From Page 1 Col.4
due to the strike of teachers. Different units of BCS General Education Association held separate rallies at their respective college premises condemning the attack on teachers and demanding punishment to those responsible for the incident, says a Press release.