DU Hons exams postponed

By Our Varsity Correspondent.

The remaining portion of the Honours and Preliminary Masters Degree Examinations of 1983 in the traditional system of the Dhaka University in all centres in Dhaka and outside Dhaka has been postponed.

The new time-table of the examinations will be announced soon. All other examinations will be held according to the time-table announced earlier. (See page 12 col. 1)

This decision was taken in an emergency meeting held at the Vice-Chancellor's office on Tuesday.

Students demand exam continuation

Majority students appearing at the honours examination from five colleges of the city on Tuesday demanded continuation of honours examination at the Dhaka University centre. The students in a signed statement said that the honours examinees have already lost one academic year.

It may be mentioned here that honours examination at Dhaka University centre was suspended following violence and reign of terror created by some so
