Medical exams begin

SSMCH Correspondent

The professional MBBS examination under Dhaka University began on Thursday. The third professional examination will begin on September 29. Meanwhile necessary arrangement has been made to hold the examination on schedule, says Sir Salimullah Medical College Press release signed by the college Principal.

Most of the students of four medical college are willing to sit for the examination on schedule he said.

Students of Sir Salimullah Medical College in a meeting on the day decided to sit for the examination on schedule. They hoped that students of other colleges would not create any confusion by raising demand for shifting of examination date.
