Students protest exam system

Staff Correspondent

The Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examinees of different schools of the city brought out several processions on Saturday morning in support of their three-point demand.

They also submitted a memorandum to the Education Secretary in this connection.

The three-point demands include cancellation of 1993 education policy, double pass system in a subject and resumption of task force including 1992 education policy.

Several processions from the schools at Purana Paltan, Motijheel, Kakrail, Segunbagicha, Bakshibazar, Nilkhel, Tikatuly, Santinagar, Malibag and other adjoining areas assembled at Topkhana Road in front of National Press Club at about 12:30 p.m. At one stage they blocked traffic movement of Abdul Ghani and Topkhana link road in front of the Education Building. The demonstrators later marched Topkhana Road towards secretariat and suddenly became agitated and damaged several motor vehicles near BMA building.

Police ascertained that a total of nine motor vehicles both parked and running were damaged partially by the demonstrators.

Police picked up 69 students from Topkhana, Kakrail, and Mirpur on charge of damaging motor vehicles and creating panic. The picked up students were in the custody of Ramna and Mirpur Police Stations till writing of this report at 10.30 p.m. on Saturday. Separate cases were registered with Ramna and Mirpur Police in these connection.
