Khulna BIT closed

Khulna Office

KHULNA, Sept. 15:—The BIT Khulna authorities in a notification today closed the institute for next seven days in order to preventing flare up of major trouble on the campus.

According to Khan Jahan Ali police station two rival groups of students belonging Chhatra League and Chhatra Dal clashed at the institute on Saturday and Sunday and at one stage. Some rooms of a hall on the campus were ransacked by the rival groups which prompted the BIT authority to close the institute in apprehension of further flare up of major trouble on the campus.

Meanwhile, strong contingents of police have been posted on the campus as precautionary measure as the supporters of Chhatra League and Chhatra Dal took out processions at Daulatpur and Khulna blaming each other for the trouble at the BIT campus. There was, however, no report of any untoward incident following the closure of the institute.
