Gun shots
near DU VC's residence

Varsity Correspondent

Dhaka University campus was rocked following blasts of bombs and gun shots on Monday night.

Police sources said that they heard the sound of over 12 round of gun shots and several bombs near the residence of Vice-Chancellor Professor A.K. Azad Chowdhury at about 9.15 p.m.

Campus sources said that a group of terrorists while passing through the area hurled bombs and fired gun shots amid heavy downpour. Consequences of the blasts, however, could not be known immediately. Police rushed to the spot and did not return till filing this report at 10.30 p.m. on Monday night.
