Keep edn. institutions free from politics

Role of politicos to use students as tools deplored

From Our Correspondent

JHENIDAH, March 14:—A seminar on "relation between students and teachers past and present" was held at Narkelbaria College, under Jhenidah sadar thana on February 22. The district information office and Narkelbaria College authority jointly organised the seminar. Mr Aminur Rahman Principal of the college presided it.

The Key-note papers were jointly presented by Mr Monoranjan Biswas

District Information Officer and Mr. Abdul Karim Lecturer of the college.

Mr. ABM Abdus Sattar Vice-Principal of Government Keshab Chandra College, Mr N M Shahjalal, Vice-Principal of Jhenidah Government Nurunehar Mohila College, Mr. Abdur Razzaque Molla, Deputy Director of District Islamic Foundation Al-Haj Khairul Basher and Mr Amio Kanti a student of the college participated in the discussion.

The speakers recalled the glorious tradition of understanding between the students and their teachers in past and stressed the need for improving the relation between them for the greater interest of the nation.

They said that the teachers and students can play a vital role for curbing terrorism from the campus as well as illiteracy from the society side by side.

The speakers further said that the teachers should contribute more outside their class rooms to develop better relation with the students and urged them to create congenial atmosphere in the educational institutions.

They vehemently criticised a section of politicians for using students and teachers as their tools and appealed them not to use the educational institutions for their political purposes. Educational institutions must be free from politics to allow the students to devote fully to their academic pursuits, the speakers observed.

The seminar was followed by a cultural function which was participated by the students of the college.

A large number of students, teachers and guardians were present on the occasion.
