Shibir goes on rampage at CMCH: Cop shot

From Staff Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Apr 11: A tense situation is prevailing at the CMC as Shibir activists went on the rampage after arrest of its leader today.

A constable was shot by the Shibir activists during the rampage, police said.

Meanwhile, Islami Chhatra Shibir announced to boycott tomorrow's students union election at Chittagong Medical College (CMC) protesting arrest of its leader Abdullaheel Kafi.

Shibir also called a strike at CMC tomorrow demanding immediate release of Kafi.

Kafi, a final year student of CMC, was arrested at 1 pm from the campus in connection with four criminal cases of murder, illegal toll collection and robbery.

Kafi, general secretary of Islami Chhatra Shibir, CMC unit, is contesting the CMC students union election for the post of vice president (VP), campus sources said. The election will be held tomorrow.

After his arrest, Shibir supporters went on the rampage on the campus and put up barricades on the road from Prabartak to Chawkbazar in front of CMC, Katalganj road and Chandanpura road in front of Chittagong College, police and witnesses said.

Police constable Abdul Aziz was shot by unruly activists in front of Chittagong College at about 2 pm, police sources said.

Aziz was admitted to hospital here for treatment.
