

তাৰিখ ... 29. 5. 86
সংখ্যা ... 3 কলাম ... 3

022

Prof. Sunil Kumar dead

By A Staff Correspondent

Dr Sunil Kumar Mukharjee an eminent litterateur and a Professor of Bengali Department of Jahangirnagar University died of heart attack on Sunday evening at the Gausia Market in Dhaka. He was 55.

While shopping in the market Dr Mukherjee suddenly fell unconscious on the pavement. Two students of the Dhaka University thought him dead to the Suhrawardy Hospital.

Prof Mukherjee was born at Faridpur in 1929. With a brilliant academic background he began his career as a school teacher. He served many educational institutions and finally joined the Joined the Jahangirnagar University in July 1972.

His works on Farrukh Ahmed and Jasimuddin are thought provoking. He has successfully translated some works of Aristotle, Horace and Longinos.

He left behind his wife a son a daughter and a large number of admirers to mourn his loss.

The body of Dr. Sunil Kumar Mukharjee was cremated at Savar on Monday night.