Education system being destroyed, says Khaleda

Begum Khaleda Zia on Sunday called for building up resistance against, what she said, conspiracy of the government to destroy the country's education system, reports UNB.

"This government has been deliberately trying to destroy the country's education system to suppress the conscience of the people," Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) Chairman said while addressing the newly elected members of the Dhaka City Unit of the Jatiyatabdiji Chhatra Dal (JCD) at the party central office.

over the rising cost of tuition fees and educational equipment including paper and text books when the standard of education continued to deteriorate.

She alleged that the government's discriminatory education policy had been depriving the children from the low income group of proper education facilities.

The BNP leader called for a united movement of the students to fight against "misdeeds" of the present government and to bring about its downfall.

Begum Zia also renewed her call to accelerate the ongoing movement for restoring democracy and people's rights as well as to bring back congenial academic atmosphere.

Earlier, Abul Khair Bhuiyan and Nasiruddin Pintu were elected President and General Secretary respectively of the Dhaka City Unit of JCD at its council session held at the BNP central office today.
