8 vehicles set ablaze on DU campus

Varsity Correspondent

Eight vehicles were set ablaze and few others damaged by some angry students on Dhaka University campus and its adjoining areas on Sunday following the arrest of two workers of a student organisation.

The police have arrested Shishir and Shamim Imtiaz Guddu, workers of Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) on Saturday night.

brought out a procession at about 3 p.m. in protest against the arrest. The processionists paraded the campus chanting anti-establishment slogans.

At one stage, the processionists set fire to four cars, one pick-up van and three auto-rickshaws on the campus.

Following the incident, police sealed different entry points to the campus. A large number of police were deployed in front of different residential halls.
