

Steps to curb DU violence

By Our DU Correspondent

Dhaka University Provosts Committee (DUPC) at a meeting Thursday adopted a resolution reiterating its previous decision that no prior permission would be needed for the law enforcing agencies for taking any appropriate measure to maintain law and order on the campus.

Presided over by Prof Abul Mansur Muhammad Abu Musa, Convener of the DUPC, The meeting also decided that every student should carry their identity cards. No outsider would be allowed to stay in students dormitories.

The meeting in another resolution said that no outsiders or anybody else would be allowed with licensed or unlicensed arms anywhere inside the campus area.
