DU hall provost office ransacked

A group of students Wednesday afternoon staged a demonstration, besieged the office of the Provost of Salimullah Hall of Dhaka University for more than half an hour and ransacked his office room protesting against the police presence in their hall, reports BSS.

Witnesses said some plain clothes police entered the hall having information that the suspected killers of Dr. Shamsul Alam Milon were staying there.

Taking prior permission of the hall provost, they searched some of the identified rooms of the hall, the campus sources said.

Immediately after the police action, Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) brought out procession in the hall chanting slogans against the Provost and the Vice-Chancellor.
