BCL-JCD clash

Asheq Mahmud College closed

JAMALPUR, Sept. 26:—Asheq Mahmud Government College in the town was closed since this morning following a clash between supporters of Chhatra League (M-I) and Jafiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) on the campus, says UNB.

Campus sources said the authorities of the college at an emergency meeting at noon took the decision to avert further trouble on the campus.

Witnesses said at least five students were injured, including two activists of Chhatra League (M-I), during the clash which began over admission of some unqualified students.

But Chhatra League alleged that the trouble erupted when a group of JCD activists stormed into the Principal's office where some 200-300 unqualified students were trying to get admission to the college.

Police rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control.

Later, in the afternoon, JCD brought out a procession in the town to protest the incident.
