Dhaka College students recover cut-gun

Varsity Correspondent

Some office-bearers of Dhaka College Students' Union recovered a cut-gun and ammunition left behind by a miscreant near the college hostel at 10 a.m. on Sunday.

According to police, some miscreants allegedly supporters of former College Students' Union V-P Meer Sarafat Ali Sapu opened fire aiming at Hostel Students' Union Sports Secretary S.A.H.M. Jaber when he was coming out from bathroom.

Hearing the sudden gunshot, hostel students came from their rooms and chased the miscreants. One of the miscreants left behind a cut-gun with ammunition when they were fleeing being chased by students.

Students' Union office-bearers including V-P Martuja Chowdhury and G.S. Wasim handed over the cut-gun with bullets to Dhanmondi Police.

A case was filed with Dhanmondi thana in this connection.
