Officers of seven Varsities begin 3-day strike

Varsity Correspondent

Officers of the country's seven Universities observed a full-day strike on Saturday in support of their demands.

The Bangladesh Inter-University Officers' Federation (BIUOF) gave a call for three-day strike to press the authorities concerned to meet their demands which include modification of present pay scales for officers of the Universities and representatives of officers in various statutory committee including Senate and Syndicate.

The strike will continue today (Sunday) and tomorrow (Monday).

All administrative activities of Dhaka University and the Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) came to a halt due to the strike of the officers.
