JCD-Moitree clash

Rajshahi New Govt Degree College closed

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Nov. 24.—Rajshahi New Government Degree College was closed sine die from this noon and the residential students were asked to vacate their hostels by 5 p.m. today. Staff council of the college took the decision of closure of the college in an emergency meeting today with acting principal Professor Fazlur Rahman in the chair. Hundreds of bombs were exploded and chase and counterchase continued for over two hours between the students belonging to Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and Chhatra Moitree as a sequel to previous clash. At least 15 students were injured three of them seriously in bomb blasts. The seriously injured students who were admitted to RMCH are Raju, Masum and Mithu. They underwent emergency operation. The roads in front of Rajshahi central jail was closed for two hours during the clash.
