Tension in DU BCL (M-I) leader held

Varsity Correspondent

Tension mounted at Dhaka University following the arrest of a leader of pro-Awami League Chhatra League (M-I) on Wednesday.

A group of agitated youths damaged three vehicles and opened several rounds of gunshot in the air creating panic among campus inmates.

Witnesses said, Detective Branch police in a special drive picked up Sahabuddin, a leader of Chhatra League (M-I), from TSC area on Wednesday noon. Sahabuddin was reportedly involved in three separate killing incidents, says a police Press release.

Immediately after the arrest of Sahabuddin, some youths fired three rounds of blank shots at TSC area and damaged two vehicles parked in front of TSC building. The agitated youths went to the Arts Building premises and opened four rounds of gunshot and damaged another vehicle near Aparajeo Bangla.

Bangladesh Chhatra League (M-I) brought out a procession and held a rally on the campus in protest against the arrest of Shahabuddin.

Addressing the rally at TSC, speakers criticised the government for taking repressive measures against Chhatra League (M-I) members across the country by filing false cases and urged all to come forward to resist the undemocratic behaviour of the BNP government.

Chhatra League (M-I) leader Mahbubul Haq Shakil and Subhash Singha Roy addressed the rally.

They strongly protested the arrest of Shahabuddin and demanded his unconditional release.

Earlier, they brought out a large procession and paraded the TSC area.
