JCD calls strike in DU today

Varsity Correspondent

Opposition party BNP backed student front Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) will observe a student strike in Dhaka University today (Sunday) protesting Friday's violent incident on the campus and demanding immediate resignation of Proctor Dr. A.K.M. Nur-un-Nabi and punitive measures against those who are responsible for the incident.

The Chhatra Dal leaders at a Press conference on Friday called the strike programme.

Meanwhile, pro-Awami League Chhatra League vowed to resist the JCD called strike. A Press release issued by BCL (S-P) said that the Chhatra League members will resist today's (Sunday) strike for the sake of the general students of the university.

JCD President Shaheeduddin Chowdhury Ani while asked whether they would withdraw their strike programme or not. In reply he said, "We can withdraw the strike if Proctor of the University resigns."
