✓ Seven SSC examinees held in Rajshahi

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, July 17.— Police arrested seven S.S.C. examinees when they went on rampage in the city streets this noon protesting the new system of examination in which the examinees have to pass separately both in objectives and essaytype papers.

According to the programme, S.S.C. examinees from various schools of the city gathered in Rajshahi Court area this noon and held rally chanting slogans against the decision of the Education Board. The angry students also damaged a jeep near local Fire Brigade Square. The police rushed to the spot and arrested seven examinees.

A case has been registered with Boalia Police Station in this connection.
