Student killed, MMC college closed sine die

Mymensingh, Oct. 5:—A third year examinee (final) Mymensingh Medical College died from knife wounds after a day-long struggle for life at the Medical College Hospital this evening, police said, reports BSS.

The student identified as Raisul Hasan Nomān (25) received stab injuries in a clash between two groups belonging to the pro-Awami League Chhatra League and the pro-BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal in an examination hall in the third floor of the college building this morning.

According to eye witness accounts, a group of students entered the examination hall and attacked the examinees, including Raisul Hasan Nomān. Today's clash was a follow up of the clashes between the groups during the last two days in which four students were injured and admitted into the hospital.

The college authorities announced closure of the college for an indefinite period and ordered the students to vacate the hostels by 3 P.M. today. All the examinations have been postponed.

The district administration took prompt action and the situation is now under control.

Police raided the Medical College hostels yesterday and recovered arms and ammunition from different rooms and roof-tops of the buildings. Police said they recovered one pipe gun, three live bullets, twelve cocktail bombs, iron rods, ramdaos and some other weapons.

A.M. College opens today

The Government Ananda Mohan College, which was closed earlier due to recent floods will reopen tomorrow (Thursday), the college authorities said.

The authorities requested the students to join the classes.
