BOU directors' conference concludes

Varsity Correspondent

A two-day long conference of the Directors of Regional Resource Centres of Bangladesh Open University (BOU) ended on Sunday at Gazipur.

While addressing the inaugural session of the conference the Vice-Chancellor of the University Dr M. Shamsheer Ali called upon the Regional Directors to gear up activities of BOU by keeping people informed about the advantages of its academic programmes.

He said, the best way to popularise Distance Education is to take it to the doorsteps of the people. For this purpose thana based BOU Centres be made more effective and these should be the focal points for all activities of BOU in the villages, he added.

Prof Ali also asked senior academics and officials to visit regional, local and thana centres to help build them even on a stronger footing.

The Treasurer of the University Dr Anwar Hossain, Dean, School of Education Prof Shamsul Kabir and KGM Faruqi also addressed the conference.
