CHITTAGONG, Dec. 30:— One hundred 20 teachers of Chittagong University today demanded election of Chittagong University Teachers Association (CUTA) Executive Committee will in the next 15 days, calling the present activities of the CUTA as illegal, reports BSS.

The teachers who held a meeting at the University Arts Faculty gallery with Dr. Fashiul Alam, a member of the executive committee of CUTA resented CUTA Executive Committee's silence over an earlier call for a requisitioned meeting of the committee.

The meeting decided that if the election of the executive committee was not held within 15 days, a new committee will be constituted at a general meeting of the university teachers.
