

095

HSC exam from today

By A Staff Correspondent

The Higher Secondary Certificate examination of 1980 under the four boards begins from today (Thursday).

A total of 36,837 candidates from different groups of Humanities, Science, Commerce, etc. will appear at the HSC examination from the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca this year.

Of the total candidates 30,485 are male and the rest 6,352 female.

Under the Dacca Board there will be 73 examination centres including two in Brussels and London respectively.

In the city there will be 19 examination centres and 11,928 candidates will sit for the examination from the city centres.