SSC exam begins tomorrow

By A Staff Correspondent

The Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examination begins tomorrow (Thursday) all over the country. All arrangements have been finalised for holding the examinations smoothly.

Under the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education Dacca 61,277 students have been enrolled to appear in the examination. With only one day left for the examination the cases of 200 students have not yet been finalised according to a Spokesman of the Board. The Spokesman however said that these cases would be finalised today (Wednesday).

Meanwhile in the city the students could not yet know the name of centres which are being notified through daily newspapers every year. According to a Spokesman the Dacca city has been divided into four zones and the District Administration will make arrangements for holding the examination. He could not say in how many
