Khaleda invited to DU function

Varsity Correspondent

The Dhaka University Syndicate in a meeting on Thursday approved the decision to invite Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia as chief guest at the award giving ceremony to be held on October 1.

The meeting, presided over by Vice-Chancellor Prof. M. Maniruzzaman Mia, expected that all concerned will extend cooperation to make the function a success with a view to maintaining normal academic activities in the University.

The function will be held at TSC auditorium and all classes will remain closed on the day as teachers and students have been invited to attend it.

Vice-Chancellor M. Maniruzzaman Mia earlier informed the members of the Syndicate about the decisions relating to the distribution of medals among the teachers and students taken in a meeting of Deans of all faculties held one and a half months ago.

After discussing various aspects of the decisions, the Syndicate gave its approval to hold the function.
