Khaleda's call to maintain campus peace

The leaders of Chittagong University central Students Union and Chittagong branch of All-Party Students Unity Thursday called on Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at her secretariat office, reports BSS.

The student leaders discussed with the Prime Minister the ways to maintain peaceful atmosphere of the campus in the interest of education. They also pointed out various problems confronted by the students of Chittagong University. There include general transport and residential problem of the female students.

The Prime Minister said the students and teachers had to put in their joint endeavours to maintain peaceful atmosphere on the campus. She assured the students that the administration would extend all cooperation, whenever necessary in this regard.

Begum Zia also gave a patient hearing to the problems pointed out by the student leaders and assured that those would be solved in due course of time.

The CUCSU VP Muhammad Nazimuddin, GS A. Zimuddin Ahmed and other office-bearers were present.

DUCSU VP Amanullah Aman, MP, RUSCU VP Rizvi Ahmed and APSU Leader Nazmul Huq Pradhan were also present on the occasion.

The leaders of All Party Students Unity (APSU), DUCSU and RUCSU on Thursday called on the Minister for Education and Cultural Affairs Prof. A.Q.M. Badruddoza Chowdhury at his office in Dhaka on Thursday, reports BSS.
