Bishwa Bharati doctorate degree given to Hásina

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina was given honorary Doctorate of Literature (D.Lit) by the Bishwa Bharati University of India for her immense contribution in strengthening relations among the countries of South Asia, reports BSS.

According to a message received in Dhaka, the decision to give D.Lit to the Bangladesh Prime Minister was taken at a meeting of the Academic Council of the reputed Indian university today.

The Academic Council observed that Sheikh Hasina, the Prime Minister of Bangladesh, has contributed immensely in the development of relations among the countries of South Asia. It also said Sheikh Hasina also played a significant role in strengthening bilateral relations between Bangladesh and India.

Mentionably, Sheikh Hasina was also earlier honoured by three prestigious universities from USA, Japan and UK with D.Lit degrees for her outstanding contribution in politics and democracy.
