DU authorities hand over student to police for forgery

Dhaka University authorities on Wednesday handed over a student to police on charges of "double forgery"–for his admission with false HSC certificate three years ago and attempts to grab the masters certificate of another student, reports BSS.

Muktijoddha Ziaur Rahman Hall officials of Dhaka University caught red handed Mahfuzur Rahman enlisted with Sir F. Rahman Hall as he was trying to collect certificates of one Rezaul Karim, who obtained his masters degree in Political Science.

After being challenged, Mahfuz identified himself to be a student of the International Relations. As the authorities checked his documents, they unearthed that he got himself admitted to the university with false HSC certificate.

Mahfuz later admitted he tried to collect the papers for leaving the country for Canada.
