Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) members, arch rival of CSAC, also brought out a big procession on the campus and held a projection meeting at Karzon Hall which was addressed by the central leaders including Shamsuzzaman Dudu and Asaduzzaman Ripon. The JCD leaders at a Press briefing at the DUCSU office in the evening claimed that they had scored the political victory in the DUCSU polls as the CSAC partners gave a single panel. Addressing newsmen, Mr. Amanullah Aman, General Secretary of the student organisation, said that they would not take part in any election in the national periphery under the present Government. He said the JCD is participating in the polls as the University teachers were conducting the election. "We would revive the united movement against the present regime after winning the polls", he asserted. Mr. Aman committed that JCD would try its best to solve various problems of the students. He denied having any relation of his party members in terrorist activities.
