DU admission tests from May 2

Varsity Correspondent

The admission tests for the First Year Honours' classes of Dhaka University for the session 1997-98 will begin from May 2.

The admission test of Ga unit (Commerce) will be held on May 2, Kha unit (Arts) on May 9, Ka unit (Science) on May 16 and Gha unit (Combined) on May 23.

The general admission committee of the university at a meeting with Vice-Chancellor Prof. A.K. Azad Chowdhury in the chair took the decision.

According to the decision, admission forms will be distributed for one month starting from March 22. The last date for filling up forms is April 20. The price of an application form is fixed at Tk 200.

Like previous year, the admission test would be based on multiple choice questions (MCQ) with an usual one-hour duration. In the procedure of checking answer-scripts, computer system would be adopted instead of traditional system.

Some 4,400 students would get the opportunity of admission into different disciplines in seven faculties of Dhaka University this year.
