Mahbub visits S.S.C. exam centres

Education Minister Mahbubur Rahman on Saturday visited different S.S.C. examination centres in Dhaka and Joydevpur, reports BSS.

During his visit the Minister was apprised that the examinations in all the centres were being held peacefully and smoothly.

The Minister visited the centres at Western High School, Agrani Girls' High School, Government Laboratory High School in Dhaka and Rani Bilashmani Government High School and Joydevpur Girls' High School at Joydevpur.

Later, addressing the teachers' and students of the Kazi Azimuddin College at Joydevpur the Minister called upon them to maintain academic atmosphere for the growth of educational institutions.

He said, the Government had formed an upzila level education committee with public representatives and government officials to further strengthen the supervision and inspection in the educational sector.

Mr. Mahbub said, Government was willing to provide all possible help including financial support to those educational institutions which maintained proper academic atmosphere by making good results and holding examinations on schedule.

State Minister for Youth and Sport Sheikh Shahidul Islam and Deputy Minister for Education Golam Sarwar accompanied the Education Minister.
