Tolaram college students in grip of bomb scare

Our Correspondent

NARAYANGANJ, Oct 8:-The students of Government Tolaram College of the town were in grip of bomb scare following a rumour that bombs have been kept at the college compound today.

According to sources-Vice Principal of the college received an anonymous phone call this noon, that three powerful bombs have been kept at different places in the college compound. Soon after receiving the phone call, college authority informed the matter to local DC and Police Super. Police vigorously search the college premises with metal detector but could not found any bomb there and left the college.

Vice-Principal received another anonymous phone call at 1:15 p.m. where the caller informed that the bombs have been kept in the Principal's, Vice-Principal's and Teacher's room. The college authority further informed the police regarding the phone call and police again searched that said rooms but this time too did not find any explosive.

A panicky situation was prevailing among the students and teachers of the college from this noon to 3 p.m.
