

Literary seminar ends

A two-day long literary seminar on Bengali literature in medieval period concluded at the Seminar Room of Arts Faculty of the Jahangirnagar University on Thursday.

Organised by the Department of Bengali the seminar was inaugurated by Professor Zillur Rahman Siddiqui Vice-Chancellor of the university while Professor Syed Ali Ahsan presided over the inaugural function.

Dr. Ahmed Sharif, Dr. Abdur Rahim Khandaker Prof. Ali Ahmed, Dr. Mumtazur Rahman Tarafder Prof. Syed Ali Ahsan, Dr. Abdu Khaleque, Dr. Muhammad Abdul Quaium, Sree Sunil Kumar Mukhopaddhaya and Mr. Md. Faruque presented their valuable papers in different sessions of the seminar.

A two-day long literary and cultural competition of Mir Musharraf Hussain Hall, of the university for the year 1980 will begin from May 14 at the hall common room under the auspices of the Hall Students Union.

The competition includes poetry speech recitation of self-composed poems extempore speech successive story telling debate story and essay writing Nazrul's song Tagore's song, modern and patriotic songs.

The competition will be inaugurated by Dr. Amir Hussain Khan Provost of the Hall.