nahar Hall with the 24 victims whose registered their names for giving their deposition.

There he scrutinised the students' identity with the help of hall administration. The commission elaborately visited the entire hall especially the room no-235, where the outsiders resided and reportedly confined by the agitating students on that night.

The commission in the afternoon interviewed the victims.

The commission will also interview the hall authorities, the assistant proctors stationed there on that night and the police authorities.
