Countrywide APSU rally today

The All-Party Students Unity (APSU) will hold countrywide rally and demonstration today (Monday) demanding ban on the politics of ousted President Ershad and his associates in the Jatiya Party, reports UNB.

The decision was taken at a meeting of APSU on Friday night.

The demonstration will also call for immediate recovery of illegal arms and sending Ershad, his wife Roushan, former Vice-President Maudud Ahmed and former Home Minister Mahmudul Hasan, now under house arrest, immediately to jail and for the trial of all associates of Ershad, including corrupt ministers, MPs and government officials.
