Students to submit memorandum to JS today

Varsity Correspondent

Different student organisations except Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal will go to Parliament in Processions today (Tuesday) to submit memorandum demanding implementation of the 10-point demands of All-Party Student Unity (APSU).

The 10-point demands of APSU are: making radio and TV autonomous, repeal of all black laws, filling in one lakh thirty-five thousand vacancies in the government offices and introduction of parliamentary system of government as per declaration of three Alliances.

Those student organisations which will submit memorandum include Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A), Chhatra League (N-S), Chhatra Union, Chhatra Front, Jatiya Chhatra League and Chhatra Moitree.
