Students clash in Sirajganj, exam postponed

SIRAJGANJ, June 30:—First year final examinations of the intermediate section of Ullapara Government Akbar Ali College were postponed Thursday after an armed clash between two rival student groups which left 15 students injured, reports UNB.

Fresh dates of the examinations were not announced immediately. Two of the seriously wounded students were admitted to a local health complex.

The clash ensued following an altercation between some activists of Pro-Awami League Chhatra League and BNP backed Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal in an examination hall of the college in the morning.

However, reasons behind the clash could not be known.

Soon after that the rival students entangled in an armed clash in and around college compound. Both the groups used country made weapons including hockey-stick, sword, dagger and some other deadly weapons.

Later on, the college authorities compelled to postpone the on going examinations amidst tense situation prevailing in the area. The classes of the college will be held as per schedule.
