CU classes to resume Oct 10

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Oct 7:—All halls of Chittagong University (CU) opened today (Sunday) for the convenience of the resident students of the university after the closure of 54 days.

According to sources, all 101 students who embarked on the six male-halls are the activists of Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS).

Meanwhile, in an emergency meeting on Saturday night the Syndicate of CU decided to resume the university classes on October 10 (Wednesday) instead of tomorrow (Monday).

The Syndicate also asked the university students to carry their respective identity card with them all the time.

Shibir captures all dormitories of CU
